Between $200 - $500 for additional individual members at $100 each	$200 - $500
New member announcement in Rock & coal Newsletter via email distribution	$250
A special, separate listing in CMA's annual membership directory ($200 value); as well as discounts of up to $300 on advertising rates	$500
Published Company info and company contact on the CMA website	$250
Discount on Exhibit Space (when the Conference is a stand-alone event)	$700

TOTAL SAVINGS  ~ $ 1,900 - $2,200

Sustaining members are further entitled to all of the benefits that are available through regular membership in CMA. These include complimentary subscription to the newsletter, Rock & Coal, the annual membership directory and participation in CMA standing committees. In addition to these benefits, CMA is forming a special Sustaining Member Vendor Committee that will hold networking events by invitation only to sustaining members. These will involve the opportunity to meet with mining companies and other customers and clients. Renewing your membership will allow you to participate in this new, exclusive committee.
